Press Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Engineering Economics, Inc. (EEI) Employees Named as Commissioning Providers for Puget Sound Energy

SEATTLE, WA – Engineering Economics, Inc. (EEI) is pleased to announce that two of its employees, Jeff Nichols and Brendon Mattis, were among a select few chosen as Professional Commissioning Agents for Puget Sound Energy’s Building Energy Optimization Program. This new energy incentive/rebate program provides Puget Sound Energy commercial customers with financial incentives for energy conservation measures.

Through this program, commercial building owners/manager can realize:

- Incentives and rebates up to 100% of the commissioning (study/investigation) fees.
- Low-cost improvements (with a payback of less than 2 years).
- Energy reductions of 5-10%.
- Reductions in annual energy costs.
- Increased building Energy Star rating.

“We have seen similar utility programs create significant energy savings for our customers,” said Jeff Nichols, EEI’s Branch Manager, “which will greatly reduce the payback period.”

EEI is a national engineering consulting firm, specializing in building commissioning, retro-commissioning, energy management/conservation, facility assessments and Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED®) services. EEI is pleased to be a service partner to Fortune 500 and nationally recognized organizations such as Pfizer, Boeing, Amazon, Microsoft, Capital One, Amgen, MD Anderson Cancer Research and numerous university and hospital systems across the United States.

Puget Sound Energy (PSE) is Washington State’s oldest and largest energy utility, with a 6,000-square-mile service area stretching across 11 counties and serving more than 1 million electric customers and nearly 750,000 natural gas customers. PSE is committed to providing cost-effective energy conservation, the procurement of sustainable energy recourse, and far-sighted investment in energy-deliver infrastructure.

More information on EEI can be found on the firm’s website at: www.eeiengineers.com.
